WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Saturday, Oct. 26, 1918.

THE WEATHER.
 High pressure continues over New England and a fresh high is advancing southward over Manitoba. Snow, the first of the season, is falling in northern Nebraska and western South Dakota.

In eastern districts the temperature continues above the average for the season.
 Showery weather is indicated for Saturday in Atlantic coast districts north of the Carolinas. Sunday will be fair and cooler in eastern districts and showers in the south and west.

It will be cooler in the middle Atlantic and New England states.
 The tendency will be to lower temperatures in virtually all of the Washington forecast districts during the next several days. The winds along the north Atlantic and middle Atlantic will be moderate south and rain.

Forecast.
 Southern New England: Rain Saturday; Sunday partly cloudy and cooler.

EVENTS OF FIFTY YEARS AGO

The minds of the Norwich people 60 years ago were taken up by the presidential campaign. Each party wrote scathingly of the other and disputes were a common occurrence. Rallies were held and there were parades. Republican banners and democratic flags were seen everywhere. There was an enthusiasm that is lacking in the present day campaigns.

Extracts from The Bulletin's files of 1868 follow:
 Oct. 15, 1868—The new schoolhouse at East Great Plain has been completed, and last week the seats were put in. The building is 30x40 feet and one story high. It has two rooms, with accommodations for 50 scholars in each room.
 As the schooner D. H. Baldwin of New London, Captain Vail, which arrived here Sunday from New York, was carrying a large quantity of coal, one of the crew, a man named Chapman, from New London, rushed suddenly out of the cabin and jumped overboard and was drowned.

Local sporting men were present at a prize fight for a $500 purse between George Roake of Providence and Tim Chaney, which was fought at daylight at Hudson, N. Y. The fight lasted 15 rounds.

Oct. 20, 1868—The republicans held an enthusiastic rally at Broad hall on Monday evening and Hon. A. W. Tenny spoke at length on the issues of the presidential campaign. Preceding the rally there was a short parade and a woman named Margaret Brennan, residing on Bowwell avenue, was severely burned about the face and body by the explosion of a coal oil lamp that she was carrying.

Oct. 24, 1868—The weather was cold enough last night to freeze the mud in the streets.
 There are many democrats in this town who intend to vote Grant and Cozzins. An intelligent Irish voter wrote to the Bulletin expressing his opposition to Grant and his desire the election of Grant.

On this date appeared a letter from a Norwich boy, who was traveling in Germany, and the letter gives a very clear description of the affairs of the Huns in 1868.

Oct. 21, 1918—Few bets have been made on the result of the presidential election. There is plenty of Grant money, but no takers. The names on the democratic flag don't inspire as much enthusiasm as they did. Democrats give them a look, but they have no smiles for them now.

There is a good supply of coal on hand after it is selling for $10 a ton. Sugar sells for 20c a pound and 23c is the highest price asked for any cut of meat.

Oct. 22, 1868—The internal revenue returns made by the assessors for the month of September amounted to $10,452.33 for the town of Norwich. The foundation for the new school on the corner of Lincoln avenue and Uncas street is completed and the lumber has arrived.

A pipe has been laid from Franklin square through Rose alley to carry the waste water into the Shetucket. Oct. 23, 1868—At the town school on Oct. 23, 1868, 425 pupils were present. There was a great republican demonstration. All the companies of Boys in Blue in this city attended and marched in the parade.

PLAYING IN BAND

AT CAMP GREENLEAF
 Word has been received by Mrs. May Houston that her son, George Houston, is certainly putting it all over the boys at Camp Greenleaf, Ga., with his clever boxing. Houston says when he comes home his first battle will be with Red Bank. He says when he gets his mail he gets so many letters it seems like Old Home week. He has also written for one of his big drums, as he is playing in their big band. Mr. Houston writes he is enjoying camp life but he says for the love of his people send some more clothes. He has received many gifts from his friends in New York and also his uncle, Louis Williams, his brother in New Haven, and from his father, brothers and friends in this city. He wishes to be remembered to all the boys of the Shore Line Co. and also Mr. Craig and Mr. Davenport of the Davis theater. J. A. George and A. Andrews.

GOTTSCALK FAMILY GETS NAME CHANGED TO WOOD
 Mrs. Mrs. S. Gottschalk of New London, mother of George Raymond Gottschalk, who is now a soldier in the U. S. army and who got his name changed to Wood, because of his German name, is a petitioner in the superior court at the short calendar session in New London to have her name changed to Wood. Her husband is dead.

Joining with the mother of the soldier in the petition was his wife, Mrs. Mary Gottschalk, and his brothers and sisters, Harold R. Willson, Edith Marion and Virginia.

The court granted the petition to change the family name to Wood for all of the petitioners.

Unclaimed Letters.

and expects to receive a call at any time.
 Mrs. E. Allen Bidwell and daughter were guests Thursday of Mrs. Susan Frobenberg of Town street.

Charles H. Lamb of Town street received word this week that her aunt, Mrs. Rebecca Morarty of Worcester, Mass., was slowly recovering from very severe burns received about four weeks ago. Mrs. Morarty had gone to spend the day with her niece, Mrs. Berdette Kelly, also of Worcester.
